

TESC Refund Policy

All players who have accepted their position on a team will be considered a committed player to that team roster for the complete year/season eligible. Once the acceptance fee has been paid there will be NO refund.

Refunds will only be allowed if the team for whatever reason is not formed. In that case a FULL refund will be approved.

For season ending injuries, relocations out of state, or just personal decisions not to play, NO refunds will be approved.

The Board has the right to hear and approve/disapprove any special circumstance(s) and will be handled on a case by case basis.
